

I do not support any proposal that would diminish the protection from unwanted phone calls that the Indiana telephone privacy law currently provides. My home time at home is for myself and my family. I do not want calls from telemarketers interrupting it.